Justice Houghton, summoned to arrest him, shot at him three times as Hartman ran toward his house. Houghton claims he believed Hartman was attempting to procure a weapon.

HE IS FOND OF DOUGHNUTS

Winsted, Conn., June 15.—The ferment of 9,000 doughnuts, holes and all, is the task Bill Hoyt of Unionville has set up for himself. It came about this way: Bill has a hand-made wagon while Luke Fournier, a New Hartford baker, has had eyes on for a long time. Luke makes a specialty of tailor-made doughnuts and Bill has been one of his best customers.

"I like that wagon of yours, Bill," said Luke.

"I'm mighty fond of your crullers," answered Bill.

"I'll buy that vehicle if you'll trade it out in doughnuts," said Luke.

"You're on," said Bill, smacking his lips in anticipation of the doughnut debauch. "You've got to give me $75 worth."

The crullers cost to cents a dozen to him.

AGENT IS HELD UP

Pueblo, June 15.—A lone masked robber entered the office of the Wells Fargo express office this afternoon about 2 o'clock, held up the agent at the point of a sixshooter and got away with $250 in bills and considerable silver. The robber then backed out the door and made his escape and up to a late hour tonight there is no clew to his identity.

The streets were crowded at the time with the usual throng of Saturday shoppers, but so quietly and carefully did the robber work that he had made good his escape before the robbery was known.

Wm. A. Donnelly was the agent in charge and he was warned by the robber not to give the alarm or he would be killed. The robber was about six feet tall and well dressed.

One of the thrusts was found to have entered the heart, cutting a gash in that organ an inch long.

The surgeons cut away the exterior tissue and stitched up the cut. Afterward the woman was said to be resting easily.
